

Jackson County
Health Department

Creating Healthy Communities

1715 Lansing Ave., Jackson, MI 49202

Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Services

Lead poisoning is a serious health hazard for young children. If not caught early, it can cause lifelong issues, including slowed growth, learning and attention problems, and speech or hearing damage.

Knowing the risks, testing your child with a simple blood test, and finding the sources of lead in your home are key ways to prevent lead poisoning.

Visit Our Website:

Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program Services

Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Education and Outreach

(517) 768-2146

- Educational materials, presentations, and resources on lead poisoning prevention and screening
- Lead-safe housing information tailored for homeowners, landlords, tenants, and pregnant women
- Referrals, lead exposure statistics, and resource packets for providers

Lead Nurse Case Management

(517) 788-4422

- Services for children under age 6 with elevated blood lead levels
- Referrals accepted from physicians, clinics, and families with elevated blood levels
- Referrals to Early On for medical, physical, or developmental assessments